EXPLANATORY NOTE

This Form 8-K/A is being filed as management inadvertently included language that should have been excluded in the Form 8-K that was originally filed with the SEC on July 22, 2019. This Form 8-K/A is being filed with that language excluded, as it should have been filed, below. The Company has also reviewed the break-down in its reporting and has taken steps to strengthen its controls around its financial reporting.

Item 4.02. Non-Reliance On Previously Issued Financial Statements or A Related Audit Report Or Completed Interim Review

On July 18, 2019, we determined that the following financial statements of our Company should not be relied upon:

- Unaudited financial statements included in our quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended February 28, 2019, filed on April 15, 2019 with SEC.

On June 4, 2018, the Company entered into securities purchase agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") with certain institutional investors (the "investors") for the sale by the Company of $10,000,000 of 8% senior secured convertible notes due September 4, 2019 (the "Notes"). The Notes are repaid monthly commencing on first day of the month after the date that is the earlier of the date that a registration statement covering the shares underlying the Notes has been declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission or 180 days after the original issue date. The Notes provide that at any time after the original issuance date, the Notes are convertible into shares of common stock, at the option of the holder. The conversion price in effect on any conversion date is equal to $2.49, subject to adjustment, mainly related to standard anti-dilution adjustments and subsequent issuances of equity securities at effective prices that are lower than the initial conversion price ("down round"). The Notes state that "from and after the maturity date, the conversion price should be equal to the lesser of (i) the then conversion price and (ii) 85% of the volume weighted average price ("VWAP"), which is immediately prior to the applicable conversion date".

A registration statement covering the shares underlying the Notes was declared effective by the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 29, 2018. Since that date and prior to Maturity Date, the Company honored conversion requests from the investors not at $2.49 price as provided in the Notes but at a fifteen percent (15%) discount to the lowest VWAP in excess of the securities issuable pursuant to the original conversion terms, creating an induced conversion under U.S. GAAP.

U.S. GAAP requires that the additional shares issued in the conversion be treated as an inducement with an expense recognized equal to the fair value of the additional shares of common stock transferred in the transaction, with such fair value being measured as of the date of the inducement offer is accepted by the convertible debt holder. Accordingly, the Company recognized a non-cash debt conversion expense of $1.6 million for the three and six months ended February 28, 2019.
